

Lonely Millionaire

Kacey Musgraves

You can step off a plane
Into a black car
You can pay 'em to wait
You can wear a gold watch on your wrist
But it won't give you back
The moments you miss

When I get paid I want to spend it on you
And, baby, that's what it's for
I'd burn it all to keep you warm

Who wants to be a lonely millionaire?
Coming home, ain't no one there
That you can talk to in your king-size bed
Be careful what you wish for
I see it all the time
The money and the diamonds and the things that shine
Can't buy you true happiness

La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la

La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la

All I want
All I want
All I want
Is you

All I want
All I want
All I want
Is you

Be careful what you wish for
I see it all the time
The money and the diamonds and the things that shine
Can't buy you true happiness

La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la
Hmm
