Kacy Hill

Seasons change and seasons go
You say I'm too honest, I know
But you could say what's on your mind more

If you wanted to, you would
I don't ask for much, but I should
You can have your space, it's all good

Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna
Damn I wish you'd wanna

You can't think too far ahead
But that's all I do, is that so bad?
If you don't love me now, just take it back
I catch a glimpse from time to time
Where nothing's there, just you and I
And I move mountains just to feel that high

Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna
Damn I wish you'd wanna

Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna
Damn I wish you'd wanna

Damn I wish you'd wanna
I wish you'd wanna

Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna
Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna...

Damn I wish you'd wanna
Be the man I thought that you were gonna
Damn I wish you'd wanna
