

Easy Going

Kacy Hill

Sometimes I get lost in the clouds of my mind
I get quiet and stuff, gotta breathe to unwind
Then I ask stupid things
Like, you know, "Are you mad at me?"
Not reason at all, just my own anxiety
Give me some peace just for one night

'Cause I'm going through all the motions
Oh, I gotta be
They say the storm will stop rolling
Hoping they're right
But I'm in a garden, it's so quiet
And inside
Screaming I just wanna feel fine

It's not that I'm sad or anything
I can't boil it down to some kind of reason
It's like I'm stuck in a dream and I'm trying to run
But I look at my legs and I'm still where I started
Watching the world from the bedroom window

'Cause I'm going through all the motions
Oh, I gotta be
They say the storm will stop rolling
Hoping they're right
But I'm in a garden, it's so quiet
And inside
Screaming I just wanna feel fine

I swear I'm drawing the same page
Turning nothing to something
I swear I'm drawing the same page
Turning nothing to something
It's always something
It's always something

I'm going through all the motions
Oh, I gotta be
They say the storm will stop rolling
Hoping they're right
But I'm in a garden, it's so quiet
And inside
Screaming I just wanna feel fine
