

The Right Time

Kacy Hill

I give you the world, never ask for the sky
But I'm still holding on to the chance that you might
And I feel like there's something
Keeping you from just loving

You tell me time and again
I love you, but then
You never call me at the right time
The moment you see
You're closer to me
You move away, always on your time
And I need someone on my side
To call me at the right time

And I want you to miss me
Could you say it simply?
I want you to miss me
Could you say it so simply?

I move with the wind, say thank you and please
I'm shy but I'm working to say what I need
And I need you to give me
A little more than I'm getting

You tell me time and again
I love you but then
You never call me at the right time
The moment you see
You're closer to me
You move away, always on your time
And I need someone on my side
To call me at the right time

And I want you to miss me
Could you say it simply?
I want you to miss me
Could you say it so simply?
