

Unkind

Kacy Hill

When we drive in the car a few years from now
Hope it feels just the same as it does to me now

Oh, you never know
How time might change your mind
Oh, but I can hope
You'll never be

Unkind
Unkind

Wish I'd known you before, wish I'd given the time
To wait for the moment I met you that night

Oh, you never know
How time might change your mind
Oh, but I can hope
You'll never be

Unkind
Unkind

'Cause I'm delicate just for you
For this kind of kindness I never knew

All sadness fades into humor eventually
I won't let you stay if you one day don't love the same

Even if it breaks my heart
Even if it breaks my heart

But, oh, you never know
How time might change your mind
Oh, you never know
How time might change your mind
