Goodbye

Kadebostany

Goodbye, and never come back
My back is not heavy enough to carry you on my shoulder
Goodbye, just disappear in the sky
We used to be the powder of the stars
But now we're just the dust of the tears
Goodbye goodbye goodbye goodbye

Now you gotta follow your path
Until you would see the light
Oh no more no more no more no more fight
I'm not ready for this again
Oh goodbye goodbye goodbye
My ex sweet lover
My piano is my only true and faithful friend

You're the shadow of the stars of the stars
We're the shadow of the stars

Come come closer, come closer, come closer

Goodbye goodbye goodbye

Goodbye
