

Letters from Her

Kadebostany

I found letters from her
It knocked me down but I took control
Just tell me does she wear the same sound as I do
Just tell me does she sing the same song to you

Tell me do you care at all
Do you forgive yourself for what you do, you care

Well, we're running out of love
Now I see I don't belong
In your arms
I'm just a stranger
And nothing more
A stranger and nothing more

I found her lipstick on your T-shirt
I thought I had you but I was wrong
Just tell me does she wear the same sound as I do
Just tell me does she sing the same song to you

Tell me do you care at all
Do you forgive yourself for what you do, you care
Tell me do you care at all
Do you forgive yourself for what you do, you care

Well, we're running out of love
Now I see I don't belong
In your arms
I'm just a stranger
And nothing more
A stranger and nothing more

Tell me do you care at all
Do you forgive yourself for what you do, you care
Tell me do you care at all
Do you forgive yourself for what you do, you care
