

Walking Away

Kadebostany

I see you evergreen
Forever young and going
Maybe time
Doesn't hit you like it does the others
Stay, don't go
I need myself
Stay, don't go
I need your love

Walking away
I've felt this before
Walking away
I've heard your call
And all I could see was the sun

Walk without fear, my little monster
Don't ever think like you're supposed to Own your own power, keep it closer
So when the time is now, you'll blossom

I see blue
Never fell for it, but now it's calling
Maybe try
Hold my breath
To say I'm sorry
Stay, don't go
I need myself
Stay, don't go
I need your love

Walking away
I've felt this before
Walking away
I've heard your call
And all I could see was the sun

All that I hear
I've heard that before
All that I've known
Was moon and stars
All I could see was the sun

Everything I gave you was mine, how's that?
Every time you leave me by myself, I fall behind
Why'd you never been there by my side then?
Take it for you, leave me by myself tonight
Myself tonight

Walking away
I've felt this before
Walking away
I've heard your call
And all I could see was the sun

Walking away
I've felt this before
Walking away

I've heard your call
And all I could see was the sun
