

I'll Just Let My Piano Play

Joshua Kadison

Been working on a song,
For you a simple melody.
Something just to let you know,
How much you mean to me.

Tryin' to find the perfect lines,
But the words put up a fight.
No matter how hard I try I just cant say it right,
I love you so much more than words could ever say.
So I'll just let my piano play

How could I describe the way your eyes look into mine,
I could never do justice to the way your love makes me shine,
I love you so much more than words could ever say,
So I'll just let my piano play

If I could turn my voice to thunder as I sing these words to you,
If I could be the morning sunlight on your face.
Maybe then my song would do,
But I am just a minstrel and music is my trade.

How could I write a song for you,
When your every love song I have ever played.
I love you so much more than words could ever say,
So I'll just let my piano play.

If I could turn my voice to thunder as I sing these words to you,
If I could be the morning sunlight on your face
Maybe then my song would do,
But I am just a minstrel and music is my trade.

How could I write a song for you,
When your every love song I have ever played.
I love you so much more than words could ever say,
So I'll just let my piano play.