Count on the rain
It's gonna fall
There will be days
When you'll wonder if you can keep holding on
And as hard as you'll try
There will be nights
When you'll feel like you're gonna break down and cry

Alone and in need If you say a prayer And reach out to me

I will be here
Right by your side
Count on my love
Everyday of your life
I will be here
Pulling you through
Count on me loving you

Count on a dream
Falling apart
There will be times
When you'll feel
the whole world is breaking your heart

And when you're afraid If you close your eyes and call out my name

I will be here
Right by your side
Count on my love
Everyday of your life
I will be here
Pulling you through
Count on me loving you

Through all your tears And through all the pain You can count on my love Every step of the way

I will be here
Right by your side
Count on my love
Everyday of your life
I will be here
Pulling you through
Count on me loving you
