

Goodbye In Your Eyes

Kai

Baby I'm all alone in the dark
Tonight as I hold you close
I feel the distance here in your heart
Now when I need you most
I hear the tears in the words you once said
There's a lil' bit less of you here everyday

I feel you fading away (fading away)
I feel you falling apart (I feel you falling apart)
I see behind all the tears
You won't let yourself cry cry
I see goodbye in your eyes
In your eyes in your eyes

After the roses, after the rain
Baby I'm holding on
And you feel a million miles away
Even here in my arms
I see the sweetness of what used to be
Becoming a part of my memories

I feel you fading away
I feel you falling apart (I feel you falling apart)
I see behind all the tears
You won't let yourself cry, cry
I see goodbye in your eyes

Baby, don't let go (don't let go)
Tell me I'm wrong (tell me)
I need to know ('cause I need to know)
I don't want to believe what I see in your eyes
That you're dreaming of leaving forever behind

I feel you fading away
And I feel you falling apart (I feel you falling apart)
I see behind all the tears
You won't let yourself cry, cry
(I can feel you drifting)
I see goodbye in your eyes

In your eyes, in your eyes
Goodbye, in your eyes
