Headcase

Kailee Morgue

Tumbling down
I hit a wall
And I'm so tired of breaking shit
Ignoring calls
And starting fires
You said "where the hell you been?"
I've been around
I'm not gonna let you in
Might take you down

Hold my hand don't touch
Hold me but don't touch

Yeah, yeah
I'm a headcase
But you love me
I'm a mistake
I warned you
I'm a headcase
Fucking crazy
I'm a heartbreak
I warned you

I'm losing my grip right now
Why aren't you here?
'Cause I need you right here right now
I can't see clear
My head is falling to my knees
My heart is just falling to pieces
You're rushing to leave
Love me, love me, love me never let go of me
Hold my hand don't touch
Hold me but don't touch

Yeah, yeah
I'm a headcase
But you love me
I'm a mistake
I warned you
I'm a headcase
Fucking crazy
I'm a heartbreak
I warned you

I won't pretend that it's all your fault
When you were there through it all
I messed things up
I always do
But it was always you

Yeah, yeah
I'm a headcase
But you love me
I'm a mistake
I warned you
I'm a headcase
Fucking crazy

I'm a heartbreak
I warned you
```

I'm a heartbreak
I warned you
```
