

The Only Ones

Kaiser Chiefs

I was lost but at least I'm alive
And I won't last a week in the wild
But the gods brought me in with the tide
To your lighthouse waiting there

I wanna be the only one
I gotta be the only one
I know that I'm the only one, a-woah-oh-oh-oh
I gotta be the only one
I wanna be the only one, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Together, let's be forever
I'll leave you never
'Cos God knows I wanna be the only one
I gotta be the only one

We're the soldiers of the night
And we're fighting for the light
Could we stay here our whole lives?
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I was watching the world from the side
When I caught your half-lit eyes
Opened up, pulled me into your life
Taught me how to shine again

I wanna be the only one
I gotta be the only one
I know that I'm the only one, a-woah-oh-oh-oh
I gotta be the only one
I wanna be the only one, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Together, let's be forever
I'll leave you never
'Cos God knows I wanna be the only one
I gotta be the only one

We're the soldiers of the night
And we're fighting for the light
Could we stay here our whole lives?
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I don't wanna live forever
If I can't love you now
I don't wanna live at all
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Together, let's be forever
I'll leave you never
'Cos God knows I wanna be the only one
I gotta be the only one

We're the soldiers of the night
Could we stay here our whole lives?

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Together, let's be forever

I wanna be the only one
I don't wanna live forever
(Wanna be the only one, I gotta be the only one)
(Wanna be the only one, I gotta be the only one)
