

Gloves Off

Kaki King

this is a song for the one that I love I haven't met them yet but I'm quietly confident but what if like you said all I'm looking for doesn't exist? oh I have to believe it does because it's okay to fall down It's okay to crumble

I've seen this before
I have seen this before you said you wanted to crawl down deep inside but at this point

after last year
I am happy to be alive and like that good Hole album I can live through this,
I can live through worse so play it back in reverse oh play it back in reverse

because it's okay to fall down
It's okay to crumble
I've seen this before

and you wanna camp out and I wanna screw around in the dark, in the dark but my hips won't give anything away not tonight, not to you but I think we both know you will stay and I'm surprised how this fits together I'm surprised how we fit together and that I will remember, oh and that I will remember

because it's okay to fall down

and I wanna fuck around in the dark, in the dark
