

Boy

Kakkmaddafakka

And he's upset, he just heard the news
His best friend's been sleeping with his lover
In shock and confused
He walks over to her and says
Girl, what did you do with your day?
She looked them deep in the eyes
Came like a total surprise
When she said

Boy, stop acting like a girl
Boy, stop acting like a girl
Is what she said

And he's so frustrated
Don't know what to do
This is not the story
That Disney always told me
I was supposed to meet a girl
I knew would be my only world
Forever, and we would die together

Before he could say something more
He'd never heard it before
And she said
Boy, stop acting like a girl
Boy, stop acting like a girl is what she said

She said
Boy, stop crying like a little girl
Boy, stop acting like a girl is what she said

And he's not around, anymore
Scared of what he'd found
Never met a girl like her
Around

She said
Boy, stop acting like a girl
Boy, stop acting like a girl is what she said
She said
Boy, stop crying like a little girl
Boy, stop acting like a girl is what she said
