

Save Yourself

Kakkmaddafakka

I can see it now
Was just a matter of time
You told me to call
You didn't pick up at all

You save yourself for someone else
I guess
You save yourself for someone else
I guess

Behind those pretty lies
I knew it had to be last
And I've been here before
I won't fall for it anymore
Cause what I found was fake
I didn't fit the frame
And I can see it now
You didn't care for me anyhow

You save yourself for someone else
I guess
You save yourself for someone else
I guess
You save yourself for someone else
I guess
You save yourself for someone else
I guess

I studied every sign
You even changed my approach to life
Just to become somebody that you would like
But your worth is no more worth
Than any bitch that I ever had

You save yourself for someone else
I guess
You save yourself for someone else
I guess
(Else I guess)
