The Two Bailouts

Kaledon

Closed in this jail
Finally I see the light
In the wall of my prison.
I see Daeniel, I see Soldiers...
I've been trapped
Here far too long!

Take me away! Take me away!
Take me away from this pain,
I want to come back in my great reign!

Evil in the air: son of Azrael...
With his black power
Took Antillus back...
Suffering is too much:
This nightmare once again!

For the second time face to face
With my old enemy I'm fighting!
You will die! Here this I swear!
King of undeads killed by Daeniel!

Take me away! Take me away!
Take me away from this pain,
I want to come back in my great reign!

Evil in the air: son of Azrael...
With his black power
Took Antillus back...
Suffering is too much:
This nightmare once again!

Take me away! Take me away!
Take me away from this pain,
I want to come back
In my great reign!
Of what will happen
