

Fake

Kaleida

Saw, saw
Think you got it
All gold
To wave your dick
Fake tan
What you're hiding
And women
To make you big

And when it's done the earth will speak
And she will warn you in your dreams

Don't be no fake
Don't operate
Hunger so vain
And your greed will burn us
But not in our name

How high
Will you take it
Break them
For your appeal
Rape her
Of her honor
But we know
You take no blame

No rules
For your profit
High Life
And empty fame
Fake truth
That you're living in
Thin skin
It will reveal

Don't be no fake
Don't operate
Hunger so vain
And your greed will burn us
But not in our name

And your greed will burn us
But not in our name

And your greed will burn us
But not in our name
