Kaleida

Mother said love
With all you ache
She said run
Don't you hesitate

She'd say crowns
Are all in vain
Don't be fooled
Gotta keep you sane

Oh won't you be that sign
It's so long to leave
If you don't know why

And oh it's a bitter lie
It's not a long delay
'Til you reach your high

Mother said love
With all you make
She'd say ride
'Til you catch your break

She'd say long,
Your longing will gain
But keep it raw
'Til you ease your pain

Oh won't you be that sign
It's so long to leave
If you don't know why

And oh it's a bitter lie
It's not a long delay
'Til you reach your high
