

Ruby in my arms admired
Stepping out we feel adored
Only in his arms inspired
To getting me moving on the floor

I can feel a constellation
As he takes my hands for sure
Give the moves we all were waiting
I want more, more, more

I'll be ready
Looking for you
I'll be ready
Waiting for you

You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that us be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night

Ruby he's a movie shaker
Shaking it across the floor
Hope I catch his undivided
I want more, more, more

I'll be ready
Looking for you
I'll be ready
Waiting for you

You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that us be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night

All I wanna do is get you back on the floor
All I wanna do is get you back on the floor

You can hold my heart in your hands
And tell me that us be alright
You can keep my love in your thoughts
Never give up to the night

Ruby how long 'til we align?
Ruby I'm falling out of line...
