

Brother Run Fast

Kaleo

One by one
One by one, we all fall
One by one, Lord
One by one, we will all fall
Open your arms wide
Open your eyes wide

Brother, run fast
They're coming your way
Oh, brother, run fast
They're headin' your way

I've got my heart bleeding for a change
I've stood by and closed my eyes in shame
You'll see them someday, you'll find them again
As the good Lord will give, the good Lord will take

Oh, brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're coming your way, coming your way
Brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're headin' your way, headin' your way

It's best you not speak of what you found
Please don't pass judgement on me now
Don't seek the truth, they'll make their own rules oh
And when they've come for me
They'll come back for you

Oh, brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're coming your way, coming your way
Brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're headin' your way, headin' your way

One by one
One by one, we all fall
One by one, Lord
One by one, we will all fall
One by one
One by one, we will all fall
Spreadin' your arms wide
Open your eyes wide

Brother, run fast
They're coming your way

Oh, brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're coming your way, coming your way
Brother, run fast, brother, run fast
They're headin' your way, headin' your way
Brother, run fast, brother, run fast
Brother, don't break, brother, don't break
Brother, run fast
They're coming your way
