

I'm gonna live forever
I was born to make a change
So when I meet my maker
This world will know my name

Oh, don't be foolish, child, you're just one man
You're much too young that you can even start to understand
Just put your faith in someone else's hands
If you dare, if you dare

Oh, say, leave now, but you've got to be sure
Yeah
Reach out. What's your heart lookin' for?
Run on, but you may be no better off alone
Alone

"I'm gonna live forever"
Is what I used to say
But my faith has grown weaker
With every dying day

Oh, don't lose faith. It's just another old day
It's not too late for you to turn around and start again
Put your heart into your maker's hands
If you care, if you care

Oh, leave now, but you've got to be sure
Reach out. What's your heart searchin' for?
Run on, but you may be no better off alone
Alone

I'll carry my father's name
Yes. I'll make you proud someday
I'll make you proud someday

Live forever

I'm gonna live forever. Oh
Hey, hey

Oh, we can live, we can live forever

Whoa. I'm gonna live forever
Whoa. We can live, we can live forever. Oh
(Live forever)
Forever
(Live forever)
Whoa. I'm gonna live forever. Oh
(Live, live forever)
(Live, live forever)

"I'm gonna live forever"
Is what I used to say
