

Endlessly

Wanna spoil me in every way
It's Valentine's like, every day
Every night's a night for a date
Know what I like and know what I need
'Cause me. I'm the type you'll want make your wife
Once you had this, you'll need it for life
It's never one night, it's never no games
Got the type sex you'll put on repeat

Forever and ever, ever and ever, ever
You never, can't ever, ever seem to get enough
Can't ever, ever seem to get enough

Forever
And ever, and ever, ever and ever, ever
You never, can't ever, ever seem to get enough
Yeah, you can't get enough

Calling you on your bluff
Don't ever stop
Giving me your all
And I'll love you
Endlessly

Your heart is mine, it ain't hard to see
When you met me, you saw me for me
You're used to them hoes all up in your face
Like that I'm different, do my own thing
Spoil me to the bone
And never leave me alone
Said I'm the first girl that got you getting romantic
'Cause once you had this, always gotta have it

Forever and ever, ever and ever, ever
You never, can't ever, ever seem to get enough
Can't ever, ever seem to get enough

Forever
And ever, and ever, ever and ever, ever
You never, can't ever, ever seem to get enough
Yeah, you can't get enough

Calling you on your bluff
Don't ever stop
Giving me your all
And I'll love you
Endlessly

Yeah
Endlessly, consistently, that's all I want
Yeah
Make it last forever, never let it go
Our love it could make miracles
We could save the world

Endlessly loving you
