Killer

Kali Uchis

Baby, have you got no soul?
Is your heart a gaping hole?
How come I didn't see that in you?
How come I can forgive you?
And if you loved me, you'd never do this
No, if you loved me, you wouldn't put me through it

That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer
That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer

Forever is for dreamers (for dreamers)
And it's foolish to not know you're a schemer
It's silly I think of our unborn children
'Cause all I'm thinking about right now is how I'll never know 'em
And if you loved me, you would never do this
Our future's battered and bloody, you're so fucking ruthless

That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer
That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer
That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer
That makes you a killer, that makes you a killer
