

Speed

You don't really know what you got yourself into
Boy, you think you know, but it just ain't that simple
I don't got the time, you should
Read between the lines, 'cause you're
Skimming through the pages, it's
Really looking dangerous

You don't really know what you got yourself into
Boy, you think you know, but it just ain't that simple
I don't got the time, you should
Read between the lines, 'cause you're
Skimming through the pages, it's
Really looking dangerous

When I'm driving in your car
Make me feel like I could do anything
But I do not have the drive
I'm in desperate need of your speed
Of your speed, of your speed, of your speed
When I'm driving in your car
Make me feel like I could do anything
But I do not have the drive
I'm in desperate need of your speed
Of your speed, of your speed, of your speed

Baby, I can feel it coming, tell me, is it coming true?
Maybe it was going perfectly the way you planned it to
Lately, I've been thinking all I really wanna do is go
Faster, can we go faster?
Something in the air, I really just don't wanna take it slow
If we waste the time, I think it might just make me miserable
Lately, I've been thinking all I really wanna do is go
Faster, can we go faster?

You better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
You better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
You better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
Better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash

When I'm driving in your car
Make me feel like I could do anything
But I do not have the drive
I'm in desperate need of your speed
Of your speed, of your speed, of your speed
When I'm driving in your car
Make me feel like I could do anything
But I do not have the drive
I'm in desperate need of your speed
Of your speed, of your speed, of your speed

You better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
You better hit your brakes

'Fore you crash, boy, crash
You better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
Better hit your brakes
'Fore you crash, boy, crash
