

Sugar! Honey! Love!

Kali Uchis

Sugar, honey, love
So sweet to me, so sweet to me
Sugar, honey, love
Start from the top now, one, two, three

Woop, there's another one, who could I ever trust?
Here we go, woop, there's another one, who, tell me who can I trust?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, woop, there's another one, swear at this point, I've seen it all
So nothing shocks me anymore
Sick and tired of betrayal, tell me, who can I trust?

And I did all my time for a crime that wasn't mine
Made it out alive, now I'm letting the sun
Shine on me and my sweet sugar honey love
Shine all your light to this world, sugar honey love

And I, I had almost given up hope
Till I met a love so pure and true
Day I met you, babe, freed me from the fear, you put the blood back in my heart
Every day was gray, you put color back to my world
Sugar honey, you gave me so much more to live for

And I did all my time for a crime that wasn't mine
Made it out alive, now I'm letting my son
Shine on me and my sweet sugar honey love
Shine all your light to this world, sugar honey love

So sweet to me, so sweet to me
Sugar honey love
So sweet to me, so sweet to me
Sugar honey love
