

Nothin New

Kalie Shorr

Sun's always gonna set in the west
Lipsticks and convertibles are better in red
And the best songs are three chords and the truth
But that ain't nothin' new

Nothing dies as hard as a bad habit
It's as certain as death and taxes
And you shouldn't get drunk in high heeled shoes
But that ain't nothin' new

'Cause ever since the beginning
Since the world started spinning, oh-oh-ohh
It's just a matter of fact
Girls want boys that don't want them back
I'm just being honest, don't matter what you call it, oh-oh-ohh
The sun still shines, the sky's still blue
You don't want me, and I love you

But that ain't nothin' new
That ain't nothin' new

Well you can't slow down a speeding train
You gonna get wet standing in the rain
If you gonna play a game that someone's gotta lose
But that ain't nothin' new...

'Cause ever since the beginning
Since the world started spinning, oh-oh-ohh
It's just a matter of fact
Girls want boys that don't want them back
I'm just being honest, don't matter what you call it, oh-oh-ohh
The sun still shines, the sky's still blue
You don't want me, and I love you

But that ain't nothin' new
That ain't nothin' new

I still look for you in every white Ford Ranger
And sometimes I swear I see you in a sea of strangers
But you couldn't love me even if you wanted to
But that ain't nothin' new

'Cause ever since the beginning
Since the world started spinning, oh-oh-ohh
It's just a matter of fact
Girls want boys that don't want them back
I'm just being honest, don't matter what you call it, oh-oh-ohh
The sun still shines, the sky's still blue
You don't want me, and I love you

But that ain't nothin' new
That ain't nothin' new

'Cause the sun's always gonna set in the west!...
