

You're a part of me
Don't you part from me
Don't you pardon me
Don't you park and go
You're the hardest thing
You're the heart of me
You're too harsh for me
Don't you harbor any feelings of love (Oh, oh)
To discourage you from giving it up (Oh, oh)
To encourage you to stay baby (Stay)
Because baby I (I)
Go crazy trying (Try)
To make your mind

So try me (Other)
Try me ('Nother)
(I'll be your best friend)
So try me (Other)
So try me ('Nother)
I give a damn

You're a part of me
More than partially
More departure leaves
Me in particles
You're the hardest thing
You're what's hardening
All this harboring
After harvesting these feeling of love
Went from flourishing to shriveling up
We should nourish it today baby (Stay)
Because baby I (I)
Go crazy trying (Try)
To change your mind

So try me (Other)
Try me ('Nother)
(I'll be your best friend)
So try me (Other)
So try me ('Nother)
I give a damn

You're a part of me
And we parted ways
And apparently, t'was impossible
You're hardest thing
For the heart of me
For the harmony
Was there horror in these feelings of love? (Love)
In the water, just drip of blood (Blood)
Did we slaughter everything baby? (Thing)
Because baby I (I)
Went crazy trying (Try)
To say your mind (Mind)

So try me (Other)
So try me ('Nother)

(I'll be your best friend)
So try me (Other)
Try me ('Nother)
So try me (Other, 'nother)
(I'll be your best friend)
So try me
Try me (Other, 'nother)
So try me
(I'll be your best friend)
Try me (Other, 'nother)
Try me
(I'll be your best friend)
Try me (Other, 'nother)
I give a damn
