Anthem

Kamelot

What's the miracle, if life itself is not? Who am I to praise it's worth With a hymn?? I may stumble over words that I forgot, Just as life itself will slowly begin.

Sing me a song for the mountains to move, Sing me the anthem of life, Sing me the anthem of life.

I'm sceptical, I like my glass of wine, I don't know your name, or what I am to do. One day you'll wonder why I read between the lines, And you will sing for me, the way I sang for you.

Sing me a song for the ocean to part, Sing me the anthem of life, Sing me the anthem of life, Sing me the anthem of life.

So another page is turned, Pray I understand what's happening, But if anything, I do know this, I'll be the best I can.

Sing me a song like the angels rejoice, Sing me an anthem of life, Sing me the anthem, Sing me the anthem of life.
