

Fool Me Again

Kameron Marlowe

You'd think that by now I'd learn
This whiskey's gonna burn, but I still drink it
And with every damn word
This old Whitley song hurts, but I still sing it
Oh, and I know if you come back you ain't gonna stay
So if you do I'm gonna let you anyway

Fool me again, I can take it
And unbreak my heart just so you can break it
And guess who's gonna wind up right back on this stool
Playing those sad songs and playing your fool
Me again
Oh yeah

We know what happens next
When that 2-AM text
Says, "Call me," and I can't ignore it
I know that you next to me
Leads to cold empty sheets in the morning
But baby, I still want it

So fool me again, I can take it
And unbreak my heart just so you can break it
And guess who's gonna wind up right back on this stool
Playing those sad songs and playing your fool
Me again
Oh yeah
Wanna fool me again

Oh the whiskey and the Whitley
And the habits that'll kick me
Gonna get me almost over you

'Til you fool me again and I'm gonna let ya
Walk right back in to my life for one night and re-wreck it
Guess who's still hooked on this stool
And playing those sad songs and playing your fool
'Til you fool me again
Oh, won't you fool me again
