

Hungover

Kameron Marlowe

Woke up a little hazed over this mornin'
Still buzzin' from the product of last night's rollin'
Rollin' outta bed, mouth dryer than Nevada in the summertime
I know it's early and I shouldn't start drinkin'
But I'm gonna do a little self-healin'
And drown out every memory of us in tequila and lime

I'm a little hungover and hangin' on
I'm right back where I started from
I'm in the middle of a heartbreak bender
My head hurts 'cause I can't quit her
I'm a little hungover and hangin' on

When the moon is high, I'm sittin' right here
If I run 'em outta liquor, I'll switch to beer
Gettin' pretty good at this real bad habit since she's been gone
By the time I leave, it'll all be spinnin'
Fall asleep with a smile not knowin' what I'm missin'
That truth's gonna hit me like a hammer when the sun comes up

I'm a little hungover and hangin' on
I'm right back where I started from
I'm in the middle of a heartbreak bender
My head hurts 'cause I can't quit her
I'm a little hungover and hangin' on
Yeah

I need somethin' strong
That makes me feel like I'm alright
I need somethin' strong
That makes me feel like I'm alright, yeah

I'm a little hungover
Yeah, I'm a little hungover and hangin' on
I'm right back where I started from
Oh, I'm in the middle of a heartbreak bender
My head hurts 'cause I can't quit her
I'm a little hungover and hangin' on
Woo
Yeah, I'm hangin' on
