

I Can Lie (The Truth Is)

Kameron Marlowe

Girl, you and me, we're the perfect dead-end road
'Cause one minute we're on fire and the next minute, we're ice cold
When I find you in my arms, somehow, we're still lost
It's like we're flying down the highway
When we're broke down, and the wheels are comin' off
And the truth is

I can lie down beside you with nothin' but leavin' on my mind
Somehow I can love you and hate you at the same damn time
How can something so wrong, feel so good, and feel so right?
So when I promise you forever
The truth is, I can lie

We're a walkin' contradiction, just look at the two of us
'Cause one minute we're dead fightin' and the next minute we're makin' love
But there ain't no one to blame for it goin' nowhere, I guess
'Cause neither of us are gonna change who we are
And the truth is

Yeah, I can lie down beside you with nothin' but leaving on my mind
Somehow I can love you and hate you at the same damn time
Oh, how can something so wrong, feel so good, and feel so right?
So when I promised you forever
The truth is, I can lie

Yeah, I can lie down beside you with nothin' but leaving on my mind
So when I promised you forever
The truth is, I can lie
Yeah, I can lie
