

Quit You

Kameron Marlowe

At twenty years old, I kicked those cigarettes
Same year, me and whiskey took a break
Guess there was a reason, I just didn't know it yet
Guess I was only making space
For that kinda smoke, that kinda buzz you can't find in a glass
Yeah, I'm addicted to every side of you, there ain't no going back

Baby, who could quit you?
Baby, who in their right mind could put you down?
'Cause I ain't ever had your kinda high
Who could ever go and tell you goodbye?
Baby, who could quit you?
'Cause I can't put you down
Put you down

The way my head spins when you kiss me slow
Well, you can't find that in a jar
I'm a desperate man without an ounce of hope
There ain't no stopping once you start

So baby, who could quit you?
Baby, who in their right mind could put you down?
'Cause I ain't ever had your kinda high
Who could ever go and tell you goodbye?
Baby, who could quit you?
'Cause I can't put you down
Oh, I can't put you down

Hey, you're more than a habit
Ain't a want you, gotta have it
You're the lightning in my veins I just can't lose

So baby, who could quit you?
Baby, who in their right mind could put you down?
'Cause I ain't ever had your kinda high
Who could ever go and tell you goodbye?
Baby, who could quit you?
'Cause I can't put you down
No, I can't put you down

I can't put you down
