

Saying Goodbye

Kameron Marlowe

She'll tell you that she'll always love you
She'll tell you that it's not your fault
She'll tell you that it's something she's gotta do
And you'll never see it comin' at all

No, there ain't nothin' like a girl saying goodbye
It's like the world goes dark for a little while
You're gonna live but a part of you is gonna die
No, there ain't nothin' like a girl you love saying goodbye

She's never gonna look any better
She's never gonna talk so sweet
You'll take a breath and hold it together
Right up 'til the moment she leaves

No, there ain't nothin' like a girl saying goodbye
It's like the world goes dark for a little while
You're gonna live but a part of you is gonna die
No, there ain't nothin' like a girl you love saying goodbye
Saying goodbye

She'll be gone, but she'll still be in the back of your mind
And in the center of your heart

There ain't nothin' like a girl saying goodbye
It's like the world goes dark for a little while
You're gonna live but a part of you is gonna die
No, there ain't nothin' like a girl you love saying goodbye

Saying goodbye
Whoa, goodbye
Goodbye
