

Tequila Talkin'

Kameron Marlowe

I bet you get this all the time
But I had to come over and ask your name
And I ain't gonna lie, I might have had one or two
But you're givin' me a feeling that I can't shake

That ain't the tequila talkin' babe
The way you're smiling's got me thinking maybe
We should let the salt and the lime have its way
We'll make up our minds tomorrow, but either way
Baby, I'm fallin'
And that ain't the tequila talkin'

I know the Cuervo can make you say some things
But I mean every word comingoutta my mouth
There's just something 'bout how you're looking now breaking down all my walls
Got me buzzing on something stronger than alcohol

That ain't the tequila talkin' baby
The way you're smiling's got me thinking maybe
We should let the salt and the lime have its way
We'll make up our minds tomorrow, but either way
Baby, I'm fallin'
And that ain't the tequila talkin'

No, no

Girl, I wanna hold you dancing
Swinging to the cover band and
Lean on in and kiss you while we sway

That ain't the tequila talkin' babe
The way you're smiling's got me thinking maybe
We should let the salt and the lime have its way
We'll make up our minds tomorrow, but either way
Yeah, baby, I'm all in
And that ain't the tequila talkin'

Aw no
That ain't the, that ain't the tequila talkin'
