

Eye of Providence

KAMIJO

Innocence dwells in your eyes
Inanities get crystalized
Of the people allowed to breathe
Oh Lord, you bless

Now everyone knows that they're already here in our time
The gray eminence, they are dying for the force

To ensure monopoly in the universe
Will they ever plan a sad war again ?

Sure, any conspiracy could be all feasible
But now, the hidden truth is revealed by you

Let's find it out in the right and wrong
Eye of providence, eye of providence

Innocence dwells in your eyes
Inanities get crystalized
Paradoxes in ambition
Cut it off before your look
Honesty dwells in your heart
Purity reveals your time
See your own evil self in the glass

Let's find it out in the right and wrong
Eye of providence, eye of providence

You are mysterious creatures
You are uglily beautiful
See your own evil self in the glass

Innocence dwells in your eyes
Inanities get crystalized
Paradoxes in ambition
Cut it off before your look
Honesty dwells in your heart
Purity reveals your time
--- in my history
