KAMRAD

I think I know it by now
I'll never make it anyhow
I think I can see
I'm not good at being me

You tell me you know just want I need
You know just who I should be
You're gonna show me what I should feel
Come on now, change me

A change is all I ever need
I never wanted to be free
Where to go? Well, I don't know
But the change is gonna show
The change is gonna show

I think there's no hope
There is nowhere I can go
Unless I go change myself
And become who you want me to be

You are the one that just knows me
You say I got to believe that
You're gonna show me what I should see
Come on now, change me

A change is all I ever need
I never wanted to be free
Where to go? Well, I don't know
But the change is gonna show
A change is all I ever need
I never wanted to be free
What to know and where to go
Well, the change is gonna show
The change is gonna show

I'm changing, I'm changing
I'm changing, I'm changing

I'm changing, I'm changing now
I'm changing just for you
I'm changing, I'm changing now
I'm changing all for you

I'm changing, I'm changing
I'm changing, I'm changing
I'm changing, I'm changing now

A change is all I ever need
I never wanted to be free
Where to go? Well, I don't know

But the change is gonna show
A change is all I ever need
I never wanted to be free
What to know and where to go
Well, the change is gonna show

The change is gonna show
Oh yes, the change is gonna show
The change is gonna show
Oh yes, the change is gonna show
The change is gonna show
