KAMRAD

I need to tell you something
That you must see
I wanna show you my love, I really wanna give you all you need
But, hey darling
It's not that easy
I really wanna get you all the things, that you are always telling me
Baby, don't give up on me
I'm trying so hard, you must believe
I'd be the man you think you need
But there's just no way, I admit and say:

That you've given me more than I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now-ow
I said you've given me more that I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now

I gotta tell you something
You wanna know
I wanna [?] so that you never leave me now
But hey darling
Can't you see?
That it's too much for me, you need much more than I could ever be
Baby, don't give up on me
I'd give my all, you must believe
I do what you expect from me
But there is just no way, I admit and say:

That you've given me more than I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now-ow
I said you've given me more that I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now

I will get crazy if I go on trying
To make you my [?]
I just hope that you would get this right
I don't wanna lie
It's just the thing that I am not the guy, that you want by your side
'Cause I can't get you all the things you like
Though I can't get you off my mind

I need to tell you something
I need to tell you something
I gotta tell you something
Ohhh-yeah
I need to tell you something
I gotta tell you someting
I need to tell you something
Yeah

Because you've given me more than I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now-ow
I said you've given me more that I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now

I said you've given me more than I can return to you, return to you now
You've given me more than I can return to you now-ow
I said you've given me more that I can return to you, return to you now

You've given me more than I can return to you now
