

I Am

Kane Brown

I'm scared of growing up
I'm scared of growing old
I'm scared of falling short
I'm scared of the unknown
Oh, I'm burning on the edge
But I know right where I stand
I know the road ahead
Will make me who I am

I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am

I was lost, out of hope
I was caving in
Overcome by the waves, I was crashing in
Took a chance on the other side of fear, I found
I can make it out

Even if I'm scared of growing up
I'm scared of growing old
I'm scared of falling short
I'm scared of the unknown
Oh, I'm burning on the edge
But I know right where I stand
I know the road ahead
Will make me who I am

I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am

There was sticks, there were stones
There were barricades
I was trapped in my mind, threw the key away
They say this and that behind my back, not to my face
They wanna see me break

Even if I'm scared of growing up
I'm scared of growing old
I'm scared of falling short
I'm scared of the unknown
Oh, I'm burning on the edge
But I know right where I stand
I know the road ahead
Will make me who I am

I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am

Will it ever pass? This feeling
Some nights, I never know
I never know

But if I can fight this feeling
I'll see silver and gold
Silver and gold

Will it ever pass? This feeling
I never know
But if I can fight this feeling

Even if I'm scared of growing up
I'm scared of falling short
But I know right where I stand
Will make me who I am

I am, I am, I am (I am)
I am, I am, I am (C'mon)
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
I am, I am, I am
