We gonna take over the year for another year
It's your bestie, Miss, Miss Westie
Don't tryna test me
It's gonna get messy
It's gonna get messy
Just, just bless me
Bless me (Talking)
It's your bestie, Miss, Miss Westie (Talking)
Just tryna bless me (Talking)
Just bless me, bless me (Talking)

Once again, the clouds are gatherin' to release what they held in (Ooh)
What they held in (Held in)
What they held in (Held in)
What they held in (Held in)

Once again, the clouds are gatherin' to release what they held in (Again, on ce-, yeah)
Once again, the clouds are gatherin' to release what they held in

How much to stop the clock from speedin'? They might try to slow down
How much to stop my daughter from growin'? I just can't take it now
'Cause she just doing all the shit I did when I was her age
I don't know how I'm gonna tell her, but her dad's just afraid
Of her choices, know that I've been through it
I just hope I haven't been the wrong influence
Put her on game before the world put her through it
Ooh-ooh, oh-oh
That's why I gotta break the curses that were sent for me
This is hard work working, this ain't destiny
My motivation is just lookin' at my family tree
I'm tryna make sure I contribute for the legacy

Once again, the clouds are gatherin' to release what they held in (Again-again, woah)
Once again, the clouds are gatherin' to release what they held in

Once again, the clouds are gathering to release what they held in (Oh, oh-
oh, oh, oh-oh, oh)
Once again, the clouds are gathering to release what they held in (Oh, oh-
oh, oh, oh-oh, oh)

Once again, the clouds are gathering to release what they held in (Oh, oh-
oh, oh, oh-oh, oh)
Once again, the clouds are gathering to release what they held in (Oh, oh-
oh, oh, oh-oh, oh)
