

Weak

Kanye West

When it's dark, You light it
No way can we deny it
Your love so sweet
It knocks us off our feet

We get so weak in the knees, we can hardly speak
We lose all control, Lord's spirit takes over us
In a daze it's been so amazing
It's not a phase, we want you to stay with us by our side
We follow your light, your love is so sweet
It knocks us right off of our feet
Can't explain why your love, it makes us weak

We throw up our hands and surrender to what you're doing
He's changing our lives in such amazing ways
Whenever we feel your presence, we can't stop moving
It's a feeling that we want to stay
'Cause our heart starts beating triple time
With thoughts of loving you on our minds
We stand on your word, believe it's true
That the cause and cure is you

We get so weak in the knees, we can hardly speak
We lose all control, Lord's spirit takes over us
In a daze it's been so amazing
It's not a phase, we want you to stay with us by our side
We follow your light, your love is so sweet
It knocks us right off of our feet
Can't explain why your love, it makes us weak

We get so weak, blood starts racing through our veins
We get so weak, Lord, it's something we can't explain
We get so, something 'bout the way you do the things you do-ooh-ooh
It knocks us right off of our feet
Can't explain why your love, it makes us weak
Can't explain why your love, it makes us weak
Can't explain why your love, it makes us weak
