

What Do You Know

Karel Zich

Do you remember, Freddie
When I was dating steady
That girl who had a long black hair
It was all so fine, man
Acting like a blind man
Only for my love affair
She was like a pretty flower
Lots of love and lots of fun
In that crazy hour I found out
She took off with my teenage son

Do you remember, Karl?
She was like a barrel
But I know that she was meant for me
Like a peace of boulder
Her head was on my shoulder
For everybody there to see
Just a pair of good time lovers
The world belonged to only us
Till the day I found out she was married
And her husband was my jealous boss

What do you know about my brand new love?
Tell me ,Freddie, who's your number one?
Her man came in and I was on the run
You know
What do you know about my brand new love?
Tell me, Karl, who's your number one?
Her husband doesn't love her but he loves his gun
Oh, oh!

Well, if I'm gonna marry
The girl I'm gonna carry
Must taste a lot like cherry wine
Gotta be a good cook
Gotta have a good look
Especially for the friends of mine
Everybody wants to love her
Ain't nobody who really can
Tell me, Freddie, do you feel like me
Ain't that good to be a man?

Well, I can tell you, buddy
I'm not like everybody
And love is for the birds and bees
First she calls you honey
Then she takes your money
And leaves you on your bended knees
Can I tell you a little secret?
That girl you invited to our show
She is our new band-leader's wife
For a band's sake let her go

What do you know about my brand new love?
Tell me, Freddie, who's your number one?
Her man came in and I was on the run
You know

What do you know about my brand new love?
Tell me, Karl, who's your number one?
Her husband doesn't love her but he loves his gun
