Oops

Karen Harding

Oh, I
I promise not to call after midnight
So why you on my phone line?
Tell me why
Been holding on to every inch of pride
Can't lie

Take me to a place nobody knows
Keep it on the hush keep it on the low
Yeah, yeah, mm, mm
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Wanna feel your heartbeat beat on mine
Wanna feel your body once last time
Yeah, yeah, mm, mm
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Oops, I did it again
From night until the morning, morning
Oops, I did it again
Should've listened to the warning, warning

Oops, I did it again
Should've listened to the warning, warning

No lie
Now you got me lying to my friends
They say I'd only get hurt in the end
With exes you can never just pretend
You can't hide

Take me to a place nobody knows
Keep it on the hush, keep it on the low
Yeah, yeah, mm, mm
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Wanna feel your heartbeat beat on mine
Wanna feel your body once last time
Yeah, yeah, mm, mm
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Oops, I did it again
From night until the morning, morning
Oops, I did it again
Should've listened to the warning, warning

All day, all night
All day, all night
All day, all night
Oops, I did it again

All day, all night
All day, all night
All day, all night
Oh

Oops, I did it again
From night until the morning, morning
Oops, I did it again

Should've listened to the warning, warning

Oops, I did it again
Should've listened to the warning, warning
