

YO! MY SAINT

Karen O

Don't you tell another lie
Don't you tell another truth
My heart, it isn't bulletproof
From visions of you

Don't you know the way I feel
Can't you read my mind
Don't you read between the lines
For what's real

Forget'em, get'em, get'em
I used to rule the streets
I was young enough to know that
There was something to believe in
I'm tired of the lies they tell
I'm trying to disguise myself
The perfect crime that I'll commit
Is loving you despite all of it

Forget'em, get'em, get'em
I used to rule the streets
I was young enough to know that
There was something to believe in
I'm tired of the lies they tell
I'm trying to disguise myself
The perfect crime that I'll commit
Is loving you despite all of it

You're my saint, you're my saint
You're my saint, you're my sensation

You're my saint, you're my saint
You're my saint, you're my sensation

Set me free
To live my life
Whatever way
I want to be
Like smoke in a mirror
I disappear
Like smoke in a mirror
I disappear

Set me free
To live my life
Whatever way
I want to be
Like smoke in a mirror
I disappear
Like smoke in a mirror
I disappear

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
They'll see you only

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
They'll see you blue

Blue
My one and only

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
Blue

Blue
In blue

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
They see you only

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
They'll see you blue
In blue
My one and only

Don't you know my eyes, my eyes
