You compliment me so well, I had to go tell my friends all abou t this color that look good with mine
He calls me yellow 'cause he say I always bring the sunshine
My future baby's be the reason that I stay on my grind
But in the mean time I collect coins and stack green Crisp blue faces take me places that I've never seen Bold and attractive I'm starting to think that he's red
I sent him telegraphic messages so he leave words unsaid
