

Facetious

Kari Faux

Why are you calling?

I don't mean to be facetious

'Cause I see that you've been trying to reach me

Saw your call was urgent (I saw your call baby)

But I missed that shit on purpose

'Cause I don't wanna deal right now (not right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

Just please stop calling me 'cause you been having yo' fun (You been having yo' fun)

Runnin' 'round town with a girl that can't even keep her hair done (Even keep her hair done)

Tonight is therapy, I'll dance away my problems (Dance away my problems)

Might even find a cutie, might even just fuck someone (Might even just fuck someone)

But right now babe, I'm on the dance floor feeling vibrant (Feeling vibrant)

You thought I would sit at home, waiting for you crying

Thought you was a Leo, 'cause I swear that you stay lying (I swear that you stay lying)

Let's go our separate ways and let bygones be bygones

I don't mean to be facetious

'Cause I see that you've been trying to reach me

Saw your call was urgent (I saw your call baby)

But I missed that shit on purpose

'Cause I don't wanna deal right now (not right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)

I don't wanna deal right now (Deal right now)

I don't wanna talk it out (We can't talk it out)
