

Freakin' N' Ballin' (An Ode To Big Corey)

Kari Faux

You're so fucking annoying, you're not even on the fucking beat bro

Bout to rock the stage, ain't a stain on me yet
Used to flex up on me, yeah you thought I would forget
They just want my time, they keep calling
Cause they see me freakin' n' ballin'
I just want the money, give a fuck about the fame
Don't compare nobody to me cause you know we not the same
Stop telling your friends that we talkin'
Cause you see me freakin' n' ballin'

Some of my bitches reckless
All of my bitches epic
TSA they pat me down, ask 'Why you got so many necklaces?'
They say that I fell off, but shit I landed on my feet
And you can go keep your advice if you don't practice what you preach
I'm a menace for the paper, I ain't doing shit for free
And they holler 'sexy lady' everytime I'm in D.C
Hit the town for the weekend, got these hoes geekin'
If she act like she don't need you shit I bet that I'm the reason

Bout to rock the stage, ain't a stain on me yet
Used to flex up on me, yeah you thought I would forget
They just want my time, they keep calling
Cause they see me freakin' n' ballin'
I just want the money, give a fuck about the fame
Don't compare nobody to me cause you know we not the same
Stop telling your friends that we talkin'
Cause you see me freakin' n' ballin'

See them tables gon' turn
You gon' live, you gon' learn
Never soft on a bitch, yeah you gotta keep it firm
Making sure my family straight is my only damn concern
Cause when we was coming up we only ate what we earned
Now I'm all around the globe
Tryna put my city on the map, tryna let you niggas know
Now I'm all around the globe
Tryna bring my sound to your town while I shut this shit down like

Bout to rock the stage, ain't a stain on me yet
Used to flex up on me, yeah you thought I would forget
They just want my time, they keep calling
Cause they see me freakin' n' ballin'
I just want the money, give a fuck about the fame
Don't compare nobody to me cause you know we not the same
Stop telling your friends that we talkin'
Cause you see me freakin' n' ballin'
