Own It

Kari Kimmel

Now I’m sittin’ on the floor and taking what you got
You tell me you were out the door for eight months, yours are off
And now you’re sayin’
Yeah, that you didn't mean it

The stars are twinklin’ bright tonight, the record player’s hot
I no longer need Jack to par, I don’t need talking off
I’m suddenly alright
Oh, now I’m comin’, I’m comin’ alive

I guess it’s all I need to fall out of love, oh yeah

You tell me what you want, now baby you gotta own it
It looks like you’re just lost and I am just gettin’ going
I’m feeling so much better and I always took the long way
I’m out the door yeah, I’m over you

Oh...

I finally lost my appetite for you once and for all
My heart’s not racin’ anymore when you walk through the door
I’m gettin’ better now, oh
I’m feelin’ so much better now, oh

I guess that’s what I need to break me from your love, oh yeah

You gave me what you got, now baby you gotta own it (Yeah you gotta own)
It looks like you’re just lost and I am just gettin’ going (Getting’ going b aby)
I’m feeling so much better (So much better)
And I always took the long way
I’m out the door, yeah

If one of us has to be down
I guess it should be you
I’ve spent so much time feeling sad, feeling lonely
Now I’ve got livin’ to do, oh...

Yay, yay, oh, oh

You gave me what you got, now baby you gotta own it (Yeah you gotta own)
It looks like you’re just lost and I am just gettin’ going (Getting’ going b aby)
I’m feeling so much better (So much better)
And I always took the long way
I’m out the door, I am over you

Yeah, yeah, over you
Oh, and out the door, oh yeah
Feelin’ so much better, feelin’ so much better, better, better
Out the door, yeah, out the door, I’m kicking you out the door
Yay...
