Orlando

Kari Rueslåtten

There's a time for rivers to run beneath the trees
There's a time for birds to fly across the sky
There's a time for lovers to wander into the woods
Orlando there's a time for you and I
There's a time, orlando
For me to sing your story
There's a time, orlando
To sing other people's stories
There's a time, orlando
To sing my own story too
