

Can't Stop Now

Karin Park

Brutal like a hurricane
And when you pronounce my name
You're killin' me
Peace like an electric chair
A little more than I can bare
For poetry, yeah
But I will never know
If I don't walk the line until the end
And if I let it go
I don't know what to do
Without pretending
No, no, no, no
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
(Oh)
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
No, no
This is what it's all about
Givin' in and takin' out
The razorblade
Spread a little angel dust
Then betray the ones we trust
And go to hell
But I will never know
If I don't walk the line until the end
And if I let it go
I don't know what to do
Without pretending
No, no, no, no
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now

(Oh)
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
How should I be movin'?
I don't have a chance
I'm losing it but still I want another dance
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
No, no
Oh, I should have walked away
(Oh, should I've walked away)
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now

(I can't stop now)
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
(Oh)
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
(Oh)
How should I be movin'?
I don't have a chance
(I don't have a chance)
I'm losing it but still I want another dance
(Another dance)
Oh, I should have walked away
Finished up the game
And played it safe
But I can't stop now
No, no
(Stop now)
Oh, I should have walked away
(Oh)
